The Young Alumni Service Award for Emory College Development and Alumni Relations will be awarded each year during Homecoming Weekend to a College alumnus or alumna.

Honorees, who must be 40 years of age or younger, are recognized for their accomplishments in at least one of the following areas:

- Distinguished service to Emory University, the Emory Alumni Association, or a constituent alumni association, school, division or department of Emory University
- Distinguished track record of extended service and exceptional, yet humble contributions of time and service to one’s community either “behind the scenes” or through regional clubs, chapters, and school/unit activities and other community groups
- Distinguished service or achievement in honoree’s field or profession

The following information must accompany this form. Incomplete nominations will not be considered by the awards committee. All nomination applications should be compiled and submitted as ONE email to kate.lawlor@emory.edu with supporting attachments or mailed as ONE packet in hard copy to 1715 N. Decatur Road, Atlanta, GA 30322 no later than December 13, 2013.
