Dr. Herman L. Reese Community Service Award
2016 Recipients

River Bunkley 18C
River is a sophomore at Emory College originally from Brooklyn, New York. River is double majoring in African American Studies and Political Science within the College of Arts and Sciences. He serves as Vice President of the Emory NAACP, Historian for the Black Student Alliance, Admission Tour Guide, Sophomore Advisor, and Communications Intern for the Emory Black Student Union. “I would like to thank the Black alumni of Emory University whose generosity and donations made this award possible. I am looking forward to using this scholarship to assist in and advance my studies in the next academic year.”

Malik Alexander 17B
Malik is a junior at Goizueta Business School. He is originally from McDonough, Georgia. Malik is studying Marketing, International Business, and Arts Management. He is a MORE Mentor, Resident Advisor, Black BBA/MBA Connections member, and involved in campus activism. “Thank you so much for your donation towards this award for the opportunity to be recognized. It is both gratifying and inspiring to know that my work is being acknowledged. Your donation will be used well- with it I can worry less about some of my material academic needs and spend more of my time/energy towards issues that truly matter! So again: thank you, thank you, THANK YOU!”

Jalyn Radziminski 18C
Jalyn is from Fort Wayne, Indiana and in her sophomore year at Emory College. Jalyn is double majoring in Linguistics and Interdisciplinary Studies with a Human Rights focus. She is involved in the Black Student Demand #3; Mental and Emotional Health for Students of Color. She participated in the 2015 Racial Justice Retreat. She is a 1915 Scholars program mentor and involved in MERGE (Multi Ethnic Racial Group at Emory), Moderator for OMPS, and in the Black Wall of Love and Issues Troupe. Jalyn is the 2015 Ngambika Community Service Chair. “I am so grateful to be a part of such an amazing, invested, resilient Black community. Thank you so much, CEBA, for paving the way and continuing to invest in our legacy of making change at Emory and the community.”

Kadeem Trimble 17C
Kadeem is a junior at Emory College originally from Decatur, Georgia. Kadeem is majoring in Quantitative Science. He is a member of the Mu Alpha Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Resident Advisor in Longstreet-Means Hall, Lab Assistant for Quantitative Theory & Methods 100 Course, and employee at the Barnes & Noble Bookstore. “Thank you for your support and investment into Emory’s Black student community. I will continue the work of aiding those in need and encouraging community uplift at Emory and its surrounding areas.”